Extreme Dullness of Market Robs Changes of Significance

CLOSING STRONG AT BEST FRACTIONS

Tone of Speculation Proves Distinctly Firm.

NEARLY ALL GAINS HELD

Bank Statement Much Better Than Expected, But Without Special Influence on Transactions.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The stock market was almost a nominal affair this morning, the extreme dullness robbing most of the fluctuations of any significant account of the fluctuations of any significant account of the statement with the statement of the statement of the statement with the statement of the statement o cance. Except in a few instances prices varied within only trifling limits, but as a rule they were up to or near last night's final prices, and the tone of the speculation was distinctly firm. The changes in the standard issues called for no comment.

American Locomotive common was American Locomotive continuo was unusually active at an advance of 1 1-4 per cent, and the preferred sold a point above the last previous sale. It was reported that this demonstration was due to favorable results from the company's recent Canadian acquisition. Twin City Rapid Transit opened up a point, and People's Gas gained % higher than the last previous sale. The local traction group was almost wholly neglected. A holiday spirit prevailed in the board room, and there was only a languid discussion of the bank statement, which was much better than ex-pected. Government bonds unchanged. Other bonds were quiet.

The market held its gain well and closed strong at about the best frac-

WHO THREW CUCUMBER AT THE GOOD HOUSEWIFE?

"What hit Billy Patterson?" is no longer attracting the attention of the local police. What they are more solicitous of knowing is "Who struck Mrs. Helmus in the chest with a cucumber while she was at a Louislana Avenue while she was at a Louisiana Avenue market stand this morning?"

Mrs. Helmus was doing her Sunday marketing and got out early to make her selections before everything was picked over. She stopped at several stands and made inquiry, but did not purchase at all of them. When she reached Tenth and B Streets a sturdy, firm, healthy green cucumber, large for its age, struck the good housewife firm, healthy green cucumber, large for its age, struck the good housewife squarely in the chest and deprived her of her breath for a few seconds.

The matter was reported to the police, but they have not been able to learn who threw the vegetable at the woman.

Ordinary Jeers Turned Into Howls of Rage by Action of Mac and Mertes.

CHICAGO, May 21 .- The New York National League ball team had not only o accept a ninth inning defeat at the hands of Chicago yesterday, but were treated to a fine variety of the Chicago nob as they were leaving the ground after the game. No one seems to know just how it started, but the finish came in an escort of a score of bluecoats and mob of two or three thousand men

Ferhaps it was the fact that the New Torkers used carriages to convey them the grounds instead of the regulation bus, which incensed the crowd. At any several thousand persons gathered about the equipages as the players were about to leave the grounds. Jeers and catcalls came from the crowds.

from jest to earnest. "Sandow" Mertes did a little turn from another carriage, "Pull them out. Lynch them!" shout-

an enthusiastic fan, making a lunge

A dozen policemen opportunely broke into the argument, and, clubs in hand, held the crowd back from the carriages. Re-enforcements soon arrived, and a way was cleared through the thousands who by this time had gathered in the street. street.
Escorted by the police and followed by a big slice of the crowd, the carriages made their way downtown to the Victoria Hotel, where the team is stay-

A Standard Oil director is quoted as saying: "The loans of the New York banks are the highest in history. Under existing circumstances liquidation in the cotton market, the grain market, and the stock market would accasion little surprise. I am a believer in the country, and have great faith in the country and have great faith in the country's future. We are likely to see, however, hesitation on the part of all until the Northern Securities matter has been definitely settled."
